Only Ten on a Side.

Car No. 117, of the DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, New York, line has its sittings divided off by low iron railings, ten on each side. When the seats are all occupied these little partitions cannot be seen. A few nights ago a man got into this car when both sides were full. Glancing critically along one side he advanced promptly to the centre of the row of passengers, and, with his hand gently pushing a gentleman's legs to one side, he said authoritatively: "Move along, boss; there's room for another here."
"I think not," replied the gentleman.
"O yes there is; there are only ten on this side," said the stranger.
"Well," politely replied the gentleman, "you can try it," and he and his next neighbor moved as far from each other as possible. Then that twenty-first passenger sat down.
He sat down hard determined to capture that eleventh modicum of space if it could be done by avoidupois.
He sat down hard on the little iron railing between the two sittings, and the next minute he was profanely dancing up and down that car, with one hand on his coat-tails, seemingly indignant that the other passengers should deem that a proper time to laugh.

The Irrepressible.

They were all out at the Springs, father, mother and the little five-year-old boy. After an invigorating bath they went up on the hill to the "chicken soup" spring, and while regaling themselves with the delightful drink, the little one looked at the bubbling, steaming water a moment, and then asked:
"Mamma, what makes that water boil so?"
"God does, my son."
"How does He do it?"
"Oh, He builds a big fire under it."
"Does He build the fire His own self?"
"Yes, I suppose so."
"The little one reflected a moment, and then asked:
"Mamma, does God kick over the chairs and swear at Mrs. God when He has to get up and build the fire?"
The wife glanced suggestively at her husband, but his eyes were fixed intently upon some object away down the river. The silence for about a minute was absolutely painful, and then the man softly remarked:
"I never before knew the Humboldt to be so low at this time of year."
Elko Post.

"The most perilous hour of a person's life is when he is tempted to despond," is one of the gems of thought we clip from a floating column of wisdom. True to the dot, every word of it, and that dread crisis never comes so near overtaking a man as it does just after he gets married and wakes up to the fact that "nobody can cook like mother."

A Frenchman was once sitting by a hummer at the songs in a theatre. "The brute," "the animal," he muttered to himself. "Sir," said the hummer, "do you mean me?" "Heaven forbid!" he replied, "I am complaining of the tenor, whose noise prevents me from hearing you so clearly as I should have wished."

If you know a man who is willing to kiss your boots because you are rich, you may be sure that there is some one who he compels to kiss his boots in turn. He who will cringe before one who is bigger than himself, will play the tyrant over all smaller than himself.

Bret Harte called on the President. No good, Gabriel. We called on him in all the warmest witchery of our melting muse, right after he was elected the second time, and he hasn't "showed up" yet. He has been back to the reckless dissipation of the rostrum.

They are making an unearthly fuss down in Maryland because a couple of the members of the Legislature took home the chairs they used during the session. The people of Maryland will live long enough to be thankful if their legislators don't steal anything but chairs.

WHAT WILL THEY DO ?

There is some little curiosity among tax-payers to learn just what action our Peace Congress, otherwise the County Commissioners, will take upon the grand jury's reports. We understand that they are loth to take any steps in the matter, because they want to save the county expense. They do not see how they can act without getting outside counsel, which the county must pay. And as they believe they have been right in the allowance of claims complained of, they are at a loss to understand the cheek of the grand jury. That body was only composed of seventeen men, none of whom are Commissioners, and it is therefore hard to see why they should assume to have any opinion upon this subject. The claims have been allowed and paid, say the Commissioners, and now where is the use in trying to upset them. At least, where is the use in calling upon us, who allowed the bills, to impeach them now. We are much of the same opinion with the Commissioners. We do not believe that they have any business to hire outside counsel, or inside counsel either, for that matter. Their business, so far as this matter concerns them, is to follow the useful hints given them by the grand jury, and do their duty, as it has not been done. To correct the management of this county in accordance with the suggestions, and not to incur more expense in order that offenses complained of may be explained away.

The legal authorities of this county must look the matter square in the face, and unless officers show as much zeal in returning as in taking, steps should be taken for their summary punishment. It is not the desire of this paper to see any county officer prosecuted, but this doubting and trusting, evading, slandering jurors, and so on is getting monotonous. Let's have a settlement of this matter as soon as possible.

We do not desire to say that any officer has been dishonest in intent, but we do say that to evade direct issues and keep moneys which belong to this county is to do something worthy of punishment. Any proper settlement of the affair cannot come through the Peace Congress, for it allowed the bills, but the Judge has bench warrants and the District Attorney can complain. We hope the matter may be settled without any such recourse, but the public is tiring of this interested abuse of the disinterested, and the ingratitude which is shown by those who have been twice spared.

THOSE TIMBER SUITS.

Senator Schurz has recommended that all prosecutions for timber depredations commenced in Nevada and California be continued until the next term of the Courts in which they are now pending. This is done in order that Congress may have all reasonable opportunity to legislate upon the subject, and express its opinion upon the character of existing laws. Strong efforts are now making to induce Senators and Representatives to act upon this question. Should they, by a wholesale amendment of the timber laws, declare that the present regulations were unjust, Schurz will without doubt dismiss the suits upon an equitable adjustment. If, however, Congress takes no action upon these laws, Schurz will prosecute the suits already commenced. Congress ought to save him that trouble.

AS USUAL.

A Virginia paper says: A very handsome lady arrived in this city a short time ago from Reno, and by her beauty and gentle manners attracted much attention.

Yes, that's our custom in Reno. Beautiful and gentle you know—away from home.

When Grant gets ready to come home the United States man-of-war Franklin should be sent to transport him to his native shore. If our entire fleet is disengaged at that time it wouldn't be a bad idea to send it along as escort. This would impart great eclat to the performance.

ANOTHER GRAND JURY REPORT.

There has been an impression in the official mind for some time to the effect that grand jurors were dummies, and grand juries, large bodies with great capacities and no inclination towards action. A sort of legal booby constrictor in other words, which with the oath of office swallowed an ox and then laid down until it was discharged. This pleasant theory has been disproven in two notable instances, viz: in Reno and in Monterey, California. In the latter city a grand jury found an indictment against a neighboring city, Salinas, for misdemeanor. The offense was in neglecting to abate a public nuisance in the shape of a stagnant pool. The Bee thereupon suggests that the next grand jury indict Sacramento for maintaining its rattle-trap of a city hall, and we suggest that in view of the number of hogs which roam our streets we ought to indict every man who voted against incorporation.

CONDITION OF CALIFORNIA.

The wool crop is light. Crop prospects are very good. The candidates are beginning to appear. The lumber trade has improved very much of late. The potato crop will be larger than in former years. The constitutional convention still absorbs public attention. The north winds and drainage have about dried off the flooded sections. The crops about the foot-hills are reported to be enormous in prospect. Kearney's late squabble with Knight and Wellock has weakened his influence and the necessity for combination against him. Several new patents have been awarded to Californians. The inventions are mostly in the mining, agricultural, wool and fruit interests. Concerning the islands which were flooded during flood time, the Bee gives these particulars: Sutter Island, which is not levied, will soon be drained if there is no late rise from the melting of the snow. Fruit trees and alfalfa have been badly injured, but there is time yet for a large vegetable crop. On Grand Island the alfalfa and orchards have suffered considerably; the bank lands are now being cultivated. Andrus Island, being drained by the San Joaquin river, is fast recovering from the flood. Much of the island will give a crop this season. Staten Island is still covered with water, but it will drain very rapidly into the Mokelumne, and good crops are anticipated. Brannan Island is in bad condition, and the breaks are hard to close. Sherman Island is in a worse condition than any of the other islands; everything has been damaged. Merritt Island is still covered by water, and the deposit very large and valuable. Randall Island (a small patch of land) having escaped the flood, is in splendid condition.

Candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

We have known for some time that the friends of L. I. Hogle in different portions of the State were desirous of presenting his name in the Republican State Convention for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, but we did not feel justified in announcing him as a candidate without the assurance from himself, that he would accept the nomination if tendered him by the Convention. An intimate personal and political friend of his, however, informed us yesterday, that Mr. Hogle would permit the use of his name in that connection, and consequently we have no further hesitation in alluding to him as a candidate, with the expression of our belief that he would add more strength to the Republican ticket than any other gentleman whose name has yet been mentioned in connection with the nomination for that position.—Times-Review.

A New York paper says that Mr. Mackay, the big bonanza millionaire of the Pacific coast, has furnished Tiffany & Co. with silver ore from his mine, out of which they are to manufacture a dinner service for his wife's residence in Paris. The service is to consist of 150 pieces, and will cost $90,000.

Another savings bank, the Teutonia of New York, has closed with $879,876 67 of deposits belonging to 4801 depositors. When will congress respond to these almost daily appeals for protection to the savings of labor by authorizing the issue of small Government bonds?

HE WON'T TAKE HER.—"Jimmy," said a young thing from California who not long ago was induced to marry one of Eureka's prominent citizens, "Jimmy, will you take me to the circus when it comes? The old and weary Base Ranger arose in his wrath and shouted: "Take you to the circus? Not by a mile sight. I'll chain you up, that's what I'll do. I don't mind the boys about town lifting their hats to you, but when it comes to them duffers in spangles, I'm on the war path. I've lost four already, you're the fifth, and if I don't chain you up I'll be burned into the basest kind of bullion."—Eureka Republican.

New York Herald: Henry Ward Beecher at sixty-five is very red in the face and puffy, and seems always in earnest, even when he walks. There is an idea, when you see him, that he is rushing, as if he might lose a train. Still he laughs and smiles, and, poor man, why shouldn't he?

STODDARD.—In Reno, May 7th, to the wife of Chas. H. Stoddard—a son.

BUTLER.—In Reno, May 6th, to the wife of M. Butler, a daughter—an 11-pounder.

Jottings.

—Fifty thousand dollars were shipped last night to New Orleans, from the Carson mint.

—The case of W. C. Ricard vs. C. P. R. R. will be tried before the Supreme Court.

—Joe Coleman has sold out his interest in the New York bakery, to his old partner, A. P. Dallam.

—A Sunday School praise concert will be given next Sabbath evening at the Methodist church.

—The jury in the Ricard case are not a little solicitous about their fees. Very good idea that.

—William Stopher has a house and lot for sale, and gives the particulars in the 50-cent column.

—Since the C P painters have visited the C. P. ticket office, it looks as neat as the sanctum of this journal.

—The frost was sufficiently severe night before last to blacken the tops of young potato vines.

—The case of Washoe county vs. Humboldt county is now on trial before the Supreme Court.

—Charles H. Stoddard is one of the happiest fathers in town. The entire matter is explained elsewhere.

—The infant child of Mrs. Murray was buried yesterday. The little one was eight months old, and died last Sunday.

—Miss Seltier, milliner, on the east side of Virginia street, has just received from San Francisco a large and carefully selected stock of articles in the millinery line. Ladies, give Miss Seltier a call.

—LYCEUM.—The Reno Lyceum has collapsed, but as it passed into the shades it gave utterance as a dying request that its debts be paid, and to that end levied an assessment of fifty cents on each and every member. Roger Johnson is empowered to collect. Members will be ready to produce the mud, for they know not the day nor the hour when Roger will ask them for the needful.

—MISSION SERVICE.—The Passionist Fathers will open their mission in the Catholic church of Reno on Thursday evening at half past seven o'clock, and close it on Monday, the 18th inst, immediately after the eight o'clock mass.

Bill of John Boynton, fare as grand jurymen to Verdi, $1 80, rejected.

Bill of L. L. Crockett, as grand juror, expenses to and from Frankton, $4, rejected.

Ordered, that P. B. Comstock file an additional bond to take the place of L. C. Savage, deceased; where upon said bond, with J. H. Kinkaid as surety, was filed and approved.

The petition to change the road running near Huffaker's in a westerly direction, and through the land of G. R. Harcourt, be granted.

The following gentlemen from Frankton and Washoe appeared this afternoon before the Board, and prayed action in the matter of the Dall road:

Nat. Holmes, Wm. Thompson, E. Owens, J. G. Looper, Jos. Frey, E. B. Tolle, Geo. Douglas, Pete Marker and Jno. Douglas. It may be remembered that these petitioners last year prayed the Commissioners to issue bonds of $4,000 for the purchase of the above road. Since that time Mr. Dall has added many material improvements to this turnpike, and now proposes, in consideration of $5,000 in county bonds to deed the said highway to the county. This road extends from a point near Frankton a distance of three miles and a half to a point on high ground on the east side of Washoe lake. Its purchase by the county would greatly conduce to the material interests of the citizens living in Washoe valley, and in our judgment is a cheap piece of property for the county. If the Commissioners see proper to buy this road Pete Marker will reduce tolls on the Ophir grade one-half.

Our Candidate.

The Odd Fellows of this State propose holding a grand annual session next June, and, with an eye to fame and an earnest desire to serve his fellows, Tom Julien, an estimable attorney of this burg, puts in a bid for the office of Grand Secretary. We see no reason why the members of this fraternity should not honor themselves and give a worthy and talented burister the position to which he aspires. If they do not elect Mr. Julien to the herein mentioned post of honor and trust, they will wrong a good man and detract much from the harmony and success of their grand assemblage. We, therefore, commend T. J. Julien to their good graces, and pray for his securing the aforesaid singular hereditament, with all the appurtenances and assigns thereto belonging, appertaining or forming a part of the parcels or presents of said office.

BURGLARY CASE.—The preliminary examination of Emmet Jones was not held to day in the Justice Court, on account of the absence of District Attorney Cain. This case will be called for trial to-morrow. Other parties are suspected, but no arrests have been made.

KALSMINING.—Old Hank Matthews is still in the field, and wants his share of what there is to do. Plenty of subscribers to character of work.

ROLLS OF HONOR.—The rolls of honor give the standing of those who stood highest in their studies and departments of our public school during the past month.

Let the Workmen Have It.

The Workmen's club meets to-morrow evening to ascertain what action its members propose in reference to the contract to construct the Peleg Brown ditch. It is most desirable that white men shall have this contract, but it seems to your mind that white men have held aloof from it and allowed the persistent, shrewd Chinamen to examine the plans and specifications, make all the calculations on the same, and put in their bid within the advertised time. Are not our workmen a little dilatory about this matter? We trust that Mr. Brown & Co. will most favorably consider the bid of the workmen, and that our fellow citizens, with regard to the positive benefits accruing to their having this contract, will use prompt and intelligent exertion to receive it.

ICE CREAM AND SOCIABILITY.—The ladies of the Baptist church propose to give an ice cream social to-morrow evening. We know of nothing more conducive to a genuine social feeling on a warm summer evening than a richly-flavored glass of ice cream. We confess to having tried it on several occasions when it seemed about the only social act we were capable of successfully performing, and therefore speak well of the proposed social. Literary exercises have been prepared with a view of lending variety to the evening's entertainment, and as the admission is free, we hope to see the church filled with an army of ice cream eaters on Wednesday night.

U. S. SURVEY.—The Hatch & Barker's surveying party of Reno are now surveying some few townships in the vicinity of Aurora. They do not go to Bodie, as has been stated, for that town is in California, and therefore out of this jurisdiction. Mr. Barker and fourteen men, with pack animals, provisions, etc., for a three month's survey, left here last week for the scene of their pleasant labors. The lands now being surveyed are valuable timber lands, and are being surveyed with a view of throwing them at once into the market.

HARNESS AND SADDLE.—Mr. J. C. McGee, has just received a carefully assorted stock of articles in the harness and saddle line, and has in addition a full supply of many articles of the same of his own manufacture. His shop will be found at Lee's stable, corner of Fourth and Sierra streets. Those who wish anything in this line will find it to their interest to call and inspect Mr. McGee's stock and ascertain his prices. See advertisement in another column.

Just the Thing.—A neatly dressed man can take some comfort with himself and at the same time be favorably regarded by his friends. It is true economy to buy good clothing, and of a style in conformity with the prevailing patterns. The next question is, where shall one get, during these hard times, a good article of underwear, business or dress suit, which gives satisfaction in price and quality of goods? Messrs. Cohen & Isaacs, at the Branch White House, on Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice, is your place gentlemen. They have all the latest styles of men's and boy's clothing, and at all prices and sizes. Their stock is both large and complete. A man can go into their store and get a full outfit, hat, suit of outer and under wear, and boots or shoes as he may prefer. These gentlemen have just received a full stock of spring and summer clothing, and defy competition in their selling prices, as well as in the quality of goods which they sell. 4-23-tf

SIDEWALK OBSTRUCTIONS.—Several of our merchants place their wares on the sidewalks in such a manner as to inconvenience the public. One-half of the space is thus often taken up. Our town is not incorporated, else such a nuisance would not be permitted, but yet our merchants should have an eye to the comfort and convenience of those who use sidewalks. Let these obstructions be removed.

GREAT NOVELTY.—Miss C. Seltier, Reno's fashionable French milliner, keeps constantly on hand a fine stock of hats, feathers, ribbons, etc. Hats made as good as new by bleaching and pressing. Cloth pressing, stamping, and all kinds of silk embroidery promptly and neatly done. Ladies wishing to purchase the latest style of goods in my line, are invited to call and inspect my stock. I have just received from San Francisco a choice lot of goods which I selected with great care and regard to please my patrons. Therefore I know I shall please my friends, and give satisfaction to all if I have their trade. Store, East side of Virginia street Reno. 3-20

MUSIC, TARGET PRACTICE, TENNIS, REFRESHMENTS.—L. Wintermantel has made still further improvements in the appointments of his summer garden and shooting galleries. A fine Ballard rifle is now at the disposal of visitors, and the ten-pin alleys are now in the best of trim. Targets at long or short range, and polite attendants to wait upon visitors. A shady resort for the weary and heavy laden, also for the thrifty who desire quenching. Pay him a visit, and the best of wines, liquors and cigars will be served to you at all times. 5-4-tf

To H. FALKNER, Esq., Secretary S. & M. M. B. Association:

Sir:—Your note is at hand, enclosing draft for $1428, being benefit due from your Association, on the death of L. C. Savage, which occurred February 3, 1878. The money came very opportunely for the help of the deceased and the prompt manner in which the Association has acted is highly appreciated by the beneficiaries. Please accept our sincere thanks, with the best wishes for the prosperity of the Association.

ICE CREAM AND SOCIABILITY.—The ladies of the Baptist church propose to give an ice cream social to-morrow evening. We know of nothing more conducive to a genuine social feeling on a warm summer evening than a richly-flavored glass of ice cream. We confess to having tried it on several occasions when it seemed about the only social act we were capable of successfully performing, and therefore speak well of the proposed social. Literary exercises have been prepared with a view of lending variety to the evening's entertainment, and as the admission is free, we hope to see the church filled with an army of ice cream eaters on Wednesday night.

U. S. SURVEY.—The Hatch & Barker's surveying party of Reno are now surveying some few townships in the vicinity of Aurora. They do not go to Bodie, as has been stated, for that town is in California, and therefore out of this jurisdiction. Mr. Barker and fourteen men, with pack animals, provisions, etc., for a three month's survey, left here last week for the scene of their pleasant labors. The lands now being surveyed are valuable timber lands, and are being surveyed with a view of throwing them at once into the market.

HARNESS AND SADDLE.—Mr. J. C. McGee, has just received a carefully assorted stock of articles in the harness and saddle line, and has in addition a full supply of many articles of the same of his own manufacture. His shop will be found at Lee's stable, corner of Fourth and Sierra streets. Those who wish anything in this line will find it to their interest to call and inspect Mr. McGee's stock and ascertain his prices. See advertisement in another column.

BURGLARY CASE.—The preliminary examination of Emmet Jones was not held to day in the Justice Court, on account of the absence of District Attorney Cain. This case will be called for trial to-morrow. Other parties are suspected, but no arrests have been made.

KALSMINING.—Old Hank Matthews is still in the field, and wants his share of what there is to do. Plenty of subscribers to character of work.

Just the Thing.—A neatly dressed man can take some comfort with himself and at the same time be favorably regarded by his friends. It is true economy to buy good clothing, and of a style in conformity with the prevailing patterns. The next question is, where shall one get, during these hard times, a good article of underwear, business or dress suit, which gives satisfaction in price and quality of goods? Messrs. Cohen & Isaacs, at the Branch White House, on Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice, is your place gentlemen. They have all the latest styles of men's and boy's clothing, and at all prices and sizes. Their stock is both large and complete. A man can go into their store and get a full outfit, hat, suit of outer and under wear, and boots or shoes as he may prefer. These gentlemen have just received a full stock of spring and summer clothing, and defy competition in their selling prices, as well as in the quality of goods which they sell. 4-23-tf

SIDEWALK OBSTRUCTIONS.—Several of our merchants place their wares on the sidewalks in such a manner as to inconvenience the public. One-half of the space is thus often taken up. Our town is not incorporated, else such a nuisance would not be permitted, but yet our merchants should have an eye to the comfort and convenience of those who use sidewalks. Let these obstructions be removed.

GREAT NOVELTY.—Miss C. Seltier, Reno's fashionable French milliner, keeps constantly on hand a fine stock of hats, feathers, ribbons, etc. Hats made as good as new by bleaching and pressing. Cloth pressing, stamping, and all kinds of silk embroidery promptly and neatly done. Ladies wishing to purchase the latest style of goods in my line, are invited to call and inspect my stock. I have just received from San Francisco a choice lot of goods which I selected with great care and regard to please my patrons. Therefore I know I shall please my friends, and give satisfaction to all if I have their trade. Store, East side of Virginia street Reno. 3-20

MUSIC, TARGET PRACTICE, TENNIS, REFRESHMENTS.—L. Wintermantel has made still further improvements in the appointments of his summer garden and shooting galleries. A fine Ballard rifle is now at the disposal of visitors, and the ten-pin alleys are now in the best of trim. Targets at long or short range, and polite attendants to wait upon visitors. A shady resort for the weary and heavy laden, also for the thrifty who desire quenching. Pay him a visit, and the best of wines, liquors and cigars will be served to you at all times. 5-4-tf

Russian Proverbs.

The wolf asked the goat to dinner; but the goat declined. — A fox sleeps, but counts his hair every year, but remains a wolf. — Dog, why do you bark? To frighten the wolves away. Dog, why do you keep your tail between your legs? I am afraid of the wolf. — Love, fire and cough cannot be hid. — Make friends with a bear but keep hold of the axe. — Everything is bitter to him who has gall in his mouth. — Bread and salt humble even a robber. — A full stomach is deaf to instruction. — If you hunt two hares you will catch neither. — God is not in haste, but His aim is sure. — You may shut the door on the devil, but he will enter by the window. — Praise not the crop until it is stacked. — It is not necessary to plough and sow fools; they grow of themselves. — With God even over the sea; without Him not over the threshold. — Truth is not drowned in water, nor burned in fire. — A fool may throw a stone into a pond; it may take seven sages to pull it out. — No bones are broken by a mother's fist. — Whose bread and whose salt I eat, his praises I sing. — Lies march on rotten legs; who lies will steal.

General Grant's visit was a success with the Turks at least. They like a silent man. The less a man says, in their estimation, the wiser he is. "Bir Adam chok alle," (a very wise man) said a Pasha to me when speaking of Grant. "Did he say anything to you?" "Not a word, but he looked wise."
